E Safety Curriculum
	Early Years	Year 1 Maple Year A	Year 2 Maple Year B	Year 3 Willow Year A	Year 4 Willow Year B	Year 5 Oak Year A	Year 6 Oak Year B
Managing Online Information	I can talk about how to use the internet as a way of finding information online. I can identify devices I could use to access information on the internet.	I can give simple examples of how to find information using digital technologies, e.g. search engines, voice activated searching. To be included in Unit 1 - Computing systems and networks. I know / understand that we can encounter a range of things online including things we like and don't like as well as things which are real or make believe / a joke. To be included in Unit 1 - Computing systems and networks. I know how to get help from a trusted adult if we see content that makes us feel sad, uncomfortable, worried or frightened. To be included in Unit 1 - Computing systems and networks.	I can use simple keywords in search engines. To be taught during English, Science and Humanities curriculum I can demonstrate how to navigate a simple webpage to get to information I need (e.g. home, forward, back buttons; links, tabs and sections.) To be taught during English, Science and Humanities curriculum. I can explain what voice activated searching is and how it might be used, and know it is not a real person (e.g. Alexa, Google Now, Siri.) To be included in Unit 1 - Computing systems and networks. I can explain the difference between things that are imaginary, 'made up' or 'make believe' and things that are 'true' or 'real.' Already covered in Unit 2 - creating media - digital photography. I can explain why some information I find online may not be real or true. Already covered in Unit 2 - creating media - digital photography	I can demonstrate how to use key phrases in search engines to gather accurate information online. To be included in Unit 4 - data and information - branching databases. I can explain what autocomplete is and how to choose the best suggestion. To be included in Unit 4 - data and information - branching databases. I can explain how the internet can be used to sell and buy things. To be taught in Year 5 PSHRE. I can explain the difference between a 'belief', an 'opinion' and a 'fact' and can give examples of how and where they might be shared online, e.g. in videos, memes, posts, news stories etc. To be taught during English curriculum. I can explain that not all opinions shared may be accepted as true or fair by others (e.g. monsters under the bed). To be included within Unit 5 - Creating media - desktop publishing. I can describe and demonstrate how we can get help from a trusted adult if we see content that makes us feel sad, uncomfortable, worried or frightened. To be taught across all curriculum areas.	I can analyse information to make a judgement about probable accuracy and I understand why it is important to make my own decisions regarding content and that my decisions are respected by others. Already covered in Unit 1 - Computing systems and networks. I can describe how to search for information within a wide group of technologies and make a judgement about the probable accuracy (e.g. social media, image sites, video sites.) Already covered in Unit 1 - Computing systems and networks. I can describe some of the methods used to encourage people to buy things online (e.g. advertising offers; in-app purchases, pop-ups) and can recognise some of these when they appear online. To be taught in Year 5 PSHRE. I can explain why lots of people sharing the same opinions or beliefs online do not make those opinions or beliefs true. To be included in Unit 4 - Data and information. I can explain that technology can be designed to act like or impersonate living things (e.g. bots) and describe what the benefits and the risks might be. Standalone session - SWGFL - AI I can explain what is meant by fake news e.g. why some people will create stories or alter photographs and put them online to pretend something is true when it isn't. To be included in Unit 4 - Data and information.	All objectives in this strand to be included in Unit 1 - Computing systems and networks. I can explain the benefits and limitations of using different types of search technologies e.g. voice-activation search engine. I can explain how some technology can limit the information I am presented with. I can explain what is meant by 'being sceptical'; I can give examples of when and why it is important to be 'sceptical'. To be taught across all curriculum areas. I can evaluate digital content and can explain how to make choices about what is trustworthy e.g. differentiating between adverts and search results. To be taught across all curriculum areas. I can explain key concepts including information, reviews, fact, opinion, belief, validity, reliability and evidence. To be taught across all curriculum areas. I can identify ways the internet can draw us to information for different agendas, e.g. website notifications, pop-ups, targeted ads. I can describe ways of identifying when online content has been commercially sponsored or boosted, (e.g. by commercial companies or by vloggers, content creators, influencers). I can explain what is meant by the term 'stereotype', how 'stereotypes' are amplified and reinforced online, and why accepting 'stereotypes' may influence how people think about others.	I can explain how search engines work and how results are selected and ranked. Already included in Unit 1 - Computing systems and networks. I can explain how to use search technologies effectively. To be included in Unit 1 - Computing systems and networks. I can describe how some online information can be opinion and can offer examples. To be taught as a discrete PSHRE unit. I can explain how and why some people may present 'opinions' as 'facts'; why the popularity of an opinion or the personalities of those promoting it does not necessarily make it true, fair or perhaps even legal. To be taught as a discrete PSHRE unit. I can define the terms 'influence', 'manipulation' and 'persuasion' and explain how someone might encounter these online (e.g. advertising and 'ad targeting' and targeting for fake news.) I understand the concept of persuasive design and how it can be used to influence peoples' choices. To be included in Unit 1 - Computing systems and networks. I can demonstrate how to analyse and evaluate the validity of 'facts' and information and I can explain why using these strategies are important. To be taught as a discrete PSHRE unit. I can explain how companies and news providers target people with online news stories they are more likely to engage with and how to recognise this. To be taught as a discrete PSHRE unit.

						I can describe how fake news may affect someone's emotions and behaviour and explain why this may be harmful. I can explain what is meant by a 'hoax'. I can explain why someone would need to think carefully before they share.

Privacy and security	I can identify some simple examples of my personal information (e.g. name, address, birthday, age, location.) I can describe who would be trustworthy to share this information with; I can explain why they are trusted.	I can explain how passwords are used to protect information, accounts and devices. To be included in Unit 1 - Computing systems and networks. I can recognise more detailed examples of information that is personal to someone (e.g. where someone lives and goes to school, family names.) To be included in Unit 1 - Computing systems and networks.	I can explain how passwords can be used to protect information, accounts and devices. To be included in Unit 1 - Computing systems and networks. I can explain and give examples of what is meant by 'private' and 'keeping things private'. To be included in Unit 1 - Computing systems and networks. I can describe and explain some rules for keeping personal information private (e.g. creating and protecting password.) Already covered in Unit 1 - Computing systems and networks. I can explain how some people may have devices in their homes connected to the internet and give examples (e.g. lights, fridges, toys, televisions). Already covered in Unit 1 - Computing systems and networks.	I can give reasons why someone should only share information with people they choose to and can trust. I can explain that if they are not sure or feel pressured then they should tell a trusted adult. To be taught as a discrete unit. I can describe how connected devices can collect and share anyone's information with others. Already covered in Unit 1 - Computing systems and networks.	I can describe strategies for keeping personal information private, depending on context. Already covered in Unit 1 - Computing systems and networks. I can explain that internet use is never fully private and is monitored, e.g. adult supervision. Already covered in Unit 1 - Computing systems and networks. I can describe how some online services may seek consent to store information about me; I know how to respond appropriately and who I can ask if I am not sure. To be included in Unit 1 - Computing systems and networks. I know what the digital age of consent is and the impact this has on online services asking for consent. To be included in Unit 1 - Computing systems and networks.	I can explain what a strong password is and demonstrate how to create one. To be taught as a discrete unit. I can explain how many free apps or services may read and share private information (e.g. friends, contacts, likes, images, videos, voice, messages, geolocation) with others. To be taught as a discrete unit. I can explain what app permissions are and can give some examples. To be taught as a discrete unit.	I can describe effective ways people can manage passwords (e.g. storing them securely or saving them in the browser.) Already included in Unit 1 - Computing systems and networks. I can explain what to do if a password is shared, lost or stolen. Already included in Unit 1 - Computing systems and networks. I can describe how and why people should keep their software and apps up to date, e.g. auto updates. Already included in Unit 1 - Computing systems and networks. I can describe simple ways to increase privacy on apps and services that provide privacy settings. Already included in Unit 1 - Computing systems and networks. I can describe ways in which some online content targets people to gain money or information illegally; I can describe strategies to help me identify such content (e.g. scams, phishing.) To be taught in Year 5 PSHRE. I know that online services have terms and conditions that govern their use. To be taught in Year 5 PSHRE.
-----------------------------	---	---	--	---	---	---	---

Copyright and ownership	I know that work I create belongs to me. I can name my work so that others know it belongs to me.	I can explain why work I create using technology belongs to me. To be included in Unit 2 – creating media – digital painting. I can say why it belongs to me (e.g. ‘I designed it’ or ‘I filmed it.’) Already covered in Unit 1 – Computing systems and networks. I can save my work under a suitable title or name so that others know it belongs to me (e.g. filename, name on content.) To be included in Unit 2 – creating media – digital painting. I understand that work created by others does not belong to me even if I save a copy. To be included in Unit 2 – creating media – digital painting.	I can recognise that content on the internet may belong to other people. To be taught as a discrete unit. Remove Unit 4 – creating media – digital music. I can describe why other people’s work belongs to them. To be taught as a discrete unit. Remove Unit 4 – creating media – digital music.	I can explain why copying someone else’s work from the internet without permission isn’t fair and can explain what problems this might cause. To be covered in Unit 5 – Desktop Publishing.	When searching on the internet for content to use, I can explain why I need to consider who owns it and whether I have the right to reuse it. Already covered in Unit 1 – Computing systems and networks. I can give some simple examples of content which I must not use without permission from the owner, e.g. videos, music, images. Already included in Unit 2 – Creating media.	I can assess and justify when it is acceptable to use the work of others. To be taught as a discrete unit. I can give examples of content that is permitted to be reused and know how this content can be found online. To be taught as a discrete unit.	I can demonstrate the use of search tools to find and access online content which can be reused by others. Already included in Unit 1 - Computing systems and networks. I can demonstrate how to make references to and acknowledge sources I have used from the internet. Already included in Unit 2 – Creating media.
--------------------------------	--	--	--	---	---	--	---

Online reputation	I can identify ways that I can put information on the internet.	I can recognise that information can stay online and could be copied. To be included in Unit 2 – creating media – digital painting. I can describe what information I should not put online without asking a trusted adult first.	I can explain how information put online about someone can last for a long time. To be taught as a discrete unit. Remove Unit 4 – creating media – digital music. I can describe how anyone’s online information could be seen by others. To be taught as a discrete unit. Remove Unit 4 – creating media – digital music. I know who to talk to if something has been put online without consent or if it is incorrect. To be taught as a discrete unit. Remove Unit 4 – creating media – digital music.	I can explain how to search for information about others online. To be covered in Unit 4 – Data and information I can explain who someone can ask if they are unsure about putting something online. To be taught as a discrete unit.	I can describe how to find out information about others by searching online. Already covered in Unit 1 – Computing systems and networks. I can describe how to find out information about others by searching online. Already covered in Unit 1 – Computing systems and networks.	I can search for information about an individual online and summarise the information found. To be included in Unit 1 – Computing systems and networks. I can describe ways that information about anyone online can be used by others to make judgments about an individual and why these may be incorrect. To be included in Unit 1 – Computing systems and networks.	I can explain the ways in which anyone can develop a positive online reputation. Already included in Unit 1 - Computing systems and networks. I can explain strategies anyone can use to protect their ‘digital personality’ and online reputation, including degrees of anonymity. Already included in Unit 1 - Computing systems and networks.

	Early Years	Year 1	Year 2	Year 3	Year 4	Year 5	Year 6
	Autumn - Whole School Assemblies – Zones of Regulation, Conventions of Courtesy & Manners, Firework Safety & Road Safety Patteson Day, Remembrance, Children in Need
Autumn 1 (Transition) - Health and Wellbeing	Transition / new goals Rules class/ school Zones of Regulation lesson 1 CORE THEME: Relationships: Caring Friendships & Managing hurtful behaviour and bullying Online bullying: I can describe ways that some people can be unkind online. I can offer examples of how this can make others feel. Keeping safe – including road safety, hand washing. Harvest gifts – kindness to Others. Being positive about self We are all special (RE link) Money linked to class reward. Ourselves and Families	Transition / new goals Rules class/ school Zones of Regulation lesson 1 CORE THEME: Relationships: Caring Friendships & Managing hurtful behaviour and bullying Online bullying: I can describe how to behave online in ways that do not upset others and can give examples.	Transition / new goals Rules class/ school Zones of Regulation lesson 1 CORE THEME: Relationships: Caring Friendships & Managing hurtful behaviour and bullying Online bullying: I can explain what bullying is, how people may bully others and how bullying can make someone feel. I can explain why anyone who experiences bullying is not to blame. I can talk about how anyone experiencing bullying can get help.	Transition / new goals Rules class/ school Zones of Regulation lesson 1 CORE THEME: Relationships: Caring Friendships & Managing hurtful behaviour and bullying Online bullying: I can describe appropriate ways to behave towards other people online and why this is important. I can give examples of how bullying behaviour could appear online and how someone can get support. Privacy and Security: I can describe simple strategies for creating and keeping passwords private. Online Reputation I can give examples of what anyone may or may not be willing to share about themselves online. I can explain the need to be careful before sharing anything personal.	Transition / new goals Rules class/ school Zones of Regulation lesson 1 CORE THEME: Relationships: Caring Friendships & Managing hurtful behaviour and bullying Online bullying: I can recognise when someone is upset, hurt or angry online. I can describe ways people can be bullied through a range of media (e.g. image, video, text, chat.) I can explain why people need to think carefully about how content they post might affect others, their feelings and how it may affect how others feel about them (their reputation).	Transition / new goals Rules class/school Zones of Regulation lesson 1 CORE THEME: Relationships: Caring Friendships & Managing hurtful behaviour and bullying Online bullying: I can recognise online bullying can be different to bullying in the physical world and can describe some of those differences. I can describe how what one person perceives as playful joking and teasing (including ‘banter’) might be experienced by others as bullying. I can explain how anyone can get help if they are being bullied online and identify when to tell a trusted adult. I can identify a range of ways to report concerns and access support both in school and at home about online bullying. I can explain how to block abusive users. I can describe the helpline services which can help people experiencing bullying, and how to access them (e.g. Childline or The Mix.)	Transition / new goals Rules class / school Zones of Regulation lesson 1 Mini police Civic Award CORE THEME: Relationships: Friendships & Managing hurtful behaviour and bullying Online bullying: I can describe how to capture bullying content as evidence (e.g screen-grab, URL, profile) to share with others who can help me. I can explain how someone would report online bullying in different context. Online relationships: I can explain how sharing something online may have an impact either positively or negatively. I can describe how to be kind and show respect for others online including the importance of respecting boundaries regarding what is shared about them online and how to support them if others do not. I can describe how things shared privately online can have unintended consequences for others. e.g. screen-grabs. I can explain that taking or sharing inappropriate images of someone (e.g. embarrassing images), even if they say it is okay, may have an impact for the sharer and others; and who can help if someone is worried about this.
